France, Sweeden and Italy to Choose the Non-Interested Arbiters-Young Raum Testifies Before the House Committee.

WILL BE ARBITRATED.

Britain and America Sign the Treaty That Will End the Behring Sea Dispute. WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.-The negotiations between the United States and Great Britain looking to the submission to arbitration of the long-pending controversy between the two countries in regard to the Behring sea seal fisheries, reached a favorable conclusion to-day. Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister, met Secretary Blaine by appointment at the State Department to-day and signed the treaty of arbitration on behalf of Great Britain. He said he had been fully authorized by Lord Salisbury to take the action. Mr. Blaine signed the document on behalf of this government, and the matter, was consummated so far as the diplomatic of the business is concerned. The treaty is still subject, however, to the action of the British Parliament and the United States Senate. The exact terms of the treaty cannot be stated, but it is known that the board of arbitration will consist of seven persons, two representing the United States, two representing Great Britain (one of whom is to be a Canadian), and one each representing the neutral governments of France, Sweden and Italy.

The joint commission considering the sealing industry held another meeting at the State Department this afternoon. It will probably close its sessions this week.

THEY ARE FOR HARRISON.

Politicians from Many States Say Republicans Favor the President's Renomination. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29 .- Ex-Gov. A. M. Stone, an Iowan, at present Assistant Commissioner of the General Land Office, has just returned from an official visit to Colorado and other Western States, and says he found very little of a Hill boom toward the setting sun. He thinks it is confined to New York and portions of the South, In Ohio he discovered a very perceptible feeling for ex-Governor Campbell and Mr. Cleveland. He says the people of Ohio have come to couple these two names together very closely, and it is his own opinion that an understanding has been reached between them whereby the ex-President will help turn the nomination to the ex-Governor if he cannot get it himself. Mr. Stone says he found everywhere a very strong feeling for President Harrison's administration, and gives it as his opinion that the President will be renominated and re-elected very easily. Col. W. O. Bradley, a member of the Republican national committee from Kentucky, is here, and says Kentucky will vote for Carlisle for the Democratic nomination. He says, further: "The Republicans in Kentucky are for Harrison, and will send a solid delegation to Minneapolis in his favor. We regard him as upright, able and patriotic, and feel that his splendid record entitles him to an indorsement. I think Mr. Harrison will be nominated without serious opposition at Minneapolis. and that he will be re-elected beyond all doubt. He won in 1888 all that we lost in 1884, and the Republicans of the country will show this year that they have a lively recollection of this fact.

Congressman Dolliver, of Iowa, annonnees that his State is for Harrison at Minneapolis. One by one the States are reporting here in favor of President Harrison's renomination till already a majority in the convention have volunteered their assurances of support.

YOUNG RAUM TESTIFIES.

What Was Done with $72 Conscience Money -The Appointment of Strang.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29 .- The House pension investigating committee to-day examined M. B. Bailey, a law clerk in the Pension Bureau. Mr. Bailey stated that there was $72 sent to his desk as a conscience contribution. He gave orders that it be put in a safe pending an inquiry. This safe was under the supervision of young Raum. When witness called on young Raum for the money to deposit in the Treasury Department the latter said he was just starting for Philadelphia; and asked if he wanted the money then. Witness said as it was 3 o'clock it was necessary to have it then. It was Saturday evening. The money was returned the following Wednesday.

Green B. Raum, jr., took the stand. He said his resignation was demanded, and that Secretary Noble did not allow him to make a defense, and would not see him in regard to the matter, but referred him to his Assistant Secretary, Mr. Bussey. Witness said he told General Bussey that, under the circumstances, he would not resign

Mr. Enloe asked young Raum if he had Wm. P. Smith appointed to office, to which he reptied he had, in the capacity of a daborer. Smith was recommended for appointment by Robert Strang, a colored man who had been known by the Raum family for years. Witness had heard the story that Smith paid Strang $200 for getting the position for him. Raum acknowledged that he had borrowed money from Strang at different times and Strang had discounted a note for him. Witness said he received $12 from Mr. Randolph, a elerk, and he would have put it in the safe, but he did not know the combination and his assistant, who did, was out of the city. He said he carried the money in his pocket for a in his wife's desk at home and heard no more about it until the day he was going to Philadelphia, when he told Mr. Bailey that he could have the money if he would send a messenger with him to his house, but Mr. Bailey said it was unnecessary on that day. On Wednesday the money was returned to Mr. Bailey. Questions put to young Raum by Judge

Payson elicted the statement that he (Ranm) had never received a cent for the appointment of Smith, nor did he use a Bland Bill-to Come Up March 22. WASHINGTON, Feb. 29 .- The Indian question occupied the attention of the House. the entire day being devoted to the Indian appropriation bill. But little progress was made with the bill.

On motion of Mr. Loud of California a bill was passed setting apart a tract of land for the use of the Lick observatory, University of California.

the joint committee on immigration to investigate the operation of the immigration laws, the importation of contract labor, and to inquire particularly into the immigration of persons affected with typhus fever into the port of New York.

Resolutions were passed authorizing the committee on the judiciary to investigate and report whether the Secretary of the Treasury has a legal right to use any portion of the one hundred million gold reserve for current expenses; calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for the amount of gold and silver certificates issued from Jan. 1, 1878, to Jan. 1, 1892, and their denominations; what amount have been redemed, and whether in gold, silver or paper cur-

Mr. Catchings of Mississippi, from the committee on rules, reported a resolution providing that on Tuesday, March 22, after the morning hour, the House shall proceed to consider the silver-coinage bill, and if it is not then disposed of the will shall be further considered on Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Catchings gave notice that the committee on rules would ask for the consideration of this resolution on Monday next, March 7.

Mr. McMillin of Tennessee, from the committee on rules, reported an amendment to the rules providing that on each Friday, at 5 o'clock, a recess be taken until 8 o'clock. The evening session being for consideration of private pension bills; for the removal of desertion charges, and granting honorable discharges. The amendment is to remove the difficulty occasioned last Friday. Under the rules as they now stand the session on Friday evening is obligatory, even if the House should adjourn before 8 o'clocks and this session should constitute a separate legislative

Voorhees Talks on Free Coinage. WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.-Among bills presented in the Senate to-day was one to authorize Commander Muliane, of the navy, to accept a medal from the Chilian government, and a bill offered by Mr. Stanford of California to determine the value of legal-tender dollars and providing that all dollars shall be received and paid out in discharge of debts, both public and private, at par, measured by that standard, whether the stamp of the government making the dollar be on gold, silver, paper or any other material; also that the legaltender value of each dollar issued by the United States shall depend alone on the stamp of the government, and that there shall be an obligation on the part of the government to exchange one dollar for an-

Mr. Vilas presented a bill to amend the general pension laws, which provided that the pension of any invalid pensioner who deserted his family should be paid to his wife and children, and that in case of insane pensioners and pensioners imprisoned for crime, a like course might be followed. Mr. Voorhees of Indiana availed himself of the opportunity offered by presenting a petition sent to him by twenty-seven members of Stillwell Post, G. A. R., of the State of Indiana, protesting against the free coinage of silver, to deliver a prepared speech on the silver question.

The Idaho election case was again taken up, and Mr. Claggett, the claimant, resumed his argument begun on Friday in support of his claim to the seat. Mr. Dubois gave a detailed account of the controverted election. Mr. Pugh, who had signed the majority report in favor of Mr. Dubois, made an argument in defense of it. While he was speaking the chair of Mr. Vance, who sat close to him, broke down, letting the North Carolina Senator fall to the floor with some force and much noise. As Mr. Vance picked himself up, apparently unhurt, he said, with a laugh. "I beg your pardon for interrupting you," to which Mr. Pugh rejoined he had not supposed that his argument would be so overpowering. At the close of Mr. Pugh's speech the Senate went into executive ses-

THE GOLD RESERVE.

Mr. Dockery Wants to Know if It Can Be Used for Current Expenditures. WASHINGTON, Feb. 29 .- At the instance of Representative Dockery, of Missouri, the House to-day adopted a resoludirecting the committee on judiciary to inquire and report to the House as to the right the Secretary of the Treasury to use the hundred millions of gold reserve for current expenditures. In regard to the resolution Mr. Dockery said: "I asked the House to adopt the resolution for the reason that there seems to be some doubt upon the question, especially emphasized by an interview of the Secretary himself, published in this city, in which he is quoted as saying: 'As to the $100,000,000 of gold reserve, it is held against the $350,000,000 national bank notes to make the credit of the government impregnable, for no one would be able to get together enough greenbacks to take all the gold out of the Treasury, and, therefore, they do not take any. But these notes outstanding are legal tender and the

"In addition to this alleged opinion of the Secretary as quoted, Acting Secretary of Treasury Hon. O. L. Spaulding, in his testimony before the ways and means committee on the 23d of January last, instead that the hundred millions of gold reserve was available for the expenses of the government, and in reply to specific questions few days, and then took it out and put it of the members of that committee he stated that the Secretary of the Treasury also, as he understood, holds the opinion that $100,000,000 of gold reserve is available for the expenses of the government, inasmuch as there is 'no statute against it.' 'I understand the hundred millions,' continued Mr. Spaulding, in reply to a question of Mr. Turner, 'was first separated in 1885 from statements in the Treasury; and you asked the question if the hunared millions could be used for any other purpose. I understand that the Secretary so holds that he has the discretion.' The acting Secretary government can and would use this gold reserve if it needs to, in a pinch. It should, therefore, appear in the debt statement as available cash.'

further asserted, in emphatic terms, that he concurred in that view. "Now at this time, pending the examina-tion by the judiciary committee," concluded Mr. Dockery, "I don't care to express any opinion on the question, further than to say that some of the most eminent financiers of the government disagree with the view that this fund can be used for current expenses." The question upon which Mr. Dockery demands a formal decision from the judiciary committee is held by the Democrats to be of the atmost importance, not only to the appropriations committee, of which Mr. Dockery is also a member, but also to the House as a whole in the coming discussion of the revenue reform bills reported by the ways and means committee. If the gold reserve should be held not to be available for current expenditures it simply means, they say, that the Fifty-second Congress has $100,000,000 less to draw upon in this matter of appropriations than has generally been understood to be available. The Democrats say that their declarations will then be justified, that the country is confronted by a defiert in the public treasury, as the result of lavish appropriations of the Fifty-first Congress, and that Mr. Holman and his colleagues of the appropriations committee must demand economy all along the line. The tariff-reformers, too, argue that all the protection of the McKinley bill has been unable to save the public treasury from the verge of bankruptey and point, in contrast, to the generous surplus that existed in the Treas-condition that they insist must be presented at the close of the Harrison administration.

MINOR MATTERS.

Representative Turner's Report on the Bill to Put Cotton-Bagging on the Free List. WASHINGTON, Feb. 29 .- Mr. Turner of Georgia, from the House ways and means committee, has made a report in favor of the bill to admit, free of duty, bagging for cotton, machinery for manufacturing bagging, cotton-ties and cotton-gins, in which he says: "The bill proposes an act of tardy justice to those who contribute the chief item of our export trade. The right A resolution was also passed authorizing to resort to imported bagging and ties will. it is confidently believed, protect farmers and laborers engaged in the production of cotton against corners and combinations among those who, under the present tariff, control the supply of these indispensable articles. The importation of machinery used in the manufacture of bagging is proposed in this bill for the benefit of American bagging-factories. They already have their raw materials free."

Mr. Springer Seriously Ill. WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.-The illness of Chairman Springer, of the ways and means committee, is the enbject of considerable anxiety on the part of his friends. He is suffering from acute erysipelas, complicated with nervous prostration and a severe cold, and is unable to see anyone but the immediate members of his family. His features are swollen almost beyond recognition, and have assumed a purple hue, yet he has never lost consciousness, and his mind is apparently perfectly clear. Chairman Springer to-day communicated to Representative McMillin, of Tennessee, the request that he assume charge of the tariff bilis in the Honse during the Chairman's illness, and make the opening speech in the coming discussion. Mr. Springer hopes to be sufficiently recovered to make

Denied by Senator Sherman. WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.-The New York World printed this morning a sensational dispatch from its correspondent here, in which an Ohio man is made to say that Senator Sherman had announced his determination to resign shortly, and that Secretary Foster would take his place in the Senate. When shown the statement this morning Senator Sherman's comment was brief, but comprehensive. He said: "There is not the slightest foundation for the story. I have never uttered to any one my purpose to resign, for I have never even contemplated it."

Minister Reid Negotiates a Treaty. PARIS, Feb. 29 .- Mr. Whitelaw Reid, the American minister, and M. Jules Roche, Minister of Commerce, to-day arrived at a definite agreement for the establishment of a commercial treaty between France and the United States, M. WASHINGTON, Feb. 29 .- The Secretary of State has received official notice of a definite agreement for the establishment of a commercial reciprocity treaty between France and the United States.

General Notes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.-Representative McClellan introduced a bill to-day to pay Dr. William T. Ferguson, of Fort Wayne, $613, the amount which would have been paid him for services in the late war, had he been rated an assistant surgeon instead of a private. His services were those of an assistant surgeon.

Representative Bretz introduced a bill to pay William K. Whitsett $220 on account of two horses taken from him by Union soldiers during the late war. Favorable report was made to the Senate from committee upon the bill which passed the House the other day to pay Aquilla Jones, jr., the amount of money-order funds stolen from the Indianapolis postoffice during his father's administration. The bill will undoubtedly pass the Senate, and then become law.

Sorely Disappointed "Sports,"

New Orleans, Feb. 29.—Several thousand people visited the Metropolitan Club to-night expecting to see one of the greatest welter-weight "mills" on record. But the crowd was sorely disappointed. No fight occurred. Ryan had suddenly fallen sick, and when the announcement was officially made, there never was seen a more thoroughly vexed assemblage. Good nature was plainly visible everywhere, and many regrets were expressed for the Chithe following statement this afternoon: "I hereby certify that I have to-day examined. Thomas R. Ryan, and find that he is suffering from an affection of the throat (tonsilitis) with fever. This requires medical attention. It will require at least two weeks to restore his health."

President Harrison Bags a Number of Ducks -Stormy Weather at the Beach.

Frecial to the Indianapolis Journal. VIRGIVIA BEACH, Va., Feb. 29 .- The presidential party was treated to a grand marine sight Sunday. Old ocean lashed furiously all day, and the foam-capped waves had the appearance of crests of snow. The President and his family have kept much to themselves, greatly to the disappointment of the women guests of the hotel. While the President is away on his hunting trip Mrs. Harrison and the other members of the party will probably pay Nor-

President Woodard, of the Ragged Island Club, went down to the island Sunday to provide against any hitch in the programme. A telephone message received from the Ragged Island club-house late this evening says that the President arrived safely at 10:30 and was as comfortable as the high tide would permit. He remarked that it was the first time he had ever been at sea in a wagon. On his ar-rival luncheon was served and a start was gists, $1. made to the marshes. John's island was selected for President Harrison to shoot from and from 4 to 6 P. M. he shot quite a number of canvasback ducks, and demonstrated his ability as an excellent and sure shot. The weather was disagreeable, raining most of the time. The President showed no signs of fatigue, but enjoyed the sport amazingly. The President appears delighted with his onting.

Man Who Quarreled with His Wife Pretends to Have Committed Snicide for Spite.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MILFORD, Feb. 29.—Saturday it was reported that William Lavering, on account of family troubles, had committed suicide by taking morphine. The neighbors became at once cited and flocked to the residence of the man. They found him stretched on a but he only winked and would not go. The family was not very much torn up over it, and finally William got up and walked away. He had one of his periodical quarrels with his wife and the general belief is that he was playing "'possum" to scare her and see how much his family cared for him. One of his boys, when asked how his father was getting along, replied, "Oh, I guess the d-fool is still resting well."

Report that Senater Hill Will Marry a Rich Albany Widow Late This Coming Summer.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29 .- There is a story current that Senator Hill is soon to be married. Originally, the name of the daughter of the late Wm. L. Miller was coupled with his, but this afternoon the Senator declared to one who broached the subject to him that the report "was absolutely false." Later the story took the form that he was engaged to a rich Albany widow, and that they would be married late in the coming summer. A gentleman, who is thought to be in a position to know, said this evening that he had every reason to believe that inside of a year Mr. Hill would no longer be in the ranks of the bachelors. Nothing but an actual marriage will ever convince some folks of this.

THREE YEARS OF HARRISON. A Review of the Present National Administration. Philadelphia Ledger.

The reason why, since the announced declination of Mr. Blaine, there appears to be no second Republican candidate for the presidential nomination in the field to seriously dispute the candidacy of Mr. Harrison, is that his administration has been so able, useful and public spirited as to disarm even adverse partisan criticism, and to compel the confidence, respect and admiration of all those whose judgments are unwarped by ignorance or prej-

Looking back over the three years of President Harrison's administration, it is seen to have been one of exceptional activity and usefulness. It has had to do with great international questions; with finanimportance, and with others of only less significance. Grave and even threatening contentions between the United States, of the one part, and Great Britain, Italy and Chili of the other part, have had to be dealt with by Mr. Harrison's administration, and they have all been brought to a fair and assured way of amicable, bonorable settlement by sagacions, dignified and patriotic consideration

Those who remember the financial situation of 1820, beginning in June and continuing for nearly six months, and which threatened to imperil the stability of the country's credit and prosthe intelligent, decisive and prompt action of President Harrison's administration which averted impending disaster. Between July 24 and Nov. 10 the treasury disbursed for the redemption of bonds alone nearly $100,000,000, and by so doing relieved the stringency of the money market and gave confidence and strength to business. President Harrison's resolute attitude daring the sife of olute attitude during the life of the Fifty-first Congress in opposition to to pass a free and unlimited silver-coinage set, defeated their purpose and saved the country from suffering from the certain evils which such an act would have entailed. The economic policy and acts of Mr. Har-rison's administration have been not less creditable than its financial policy. As he and Secretary Windomstood together with regard to the latter, so have he and Secretary Blaine stood in respect to the former, and the results are to be per-American republics and the effective operation of the plan of reciprocity which has secured the most valuable concessions in favor of the American expert trade from almost every country of continental Europe. The full advantages of this policy are yet to be realized, and so vast are their possibilities that they cannot now be intelligently estimated or even conjectured. With reference to recreating a navy, escommensurate with the power, dignity and necessities of the United States, Mr. Harrison's administration has exhibited good judgment, liberality and public spirit. The civil service has been greatly improved and its charac-ter elevated by the Fresident's careful se-lection of federal officers and the extension of the civil-service rules not only by him, but by members of his Cabinet. President Harrison's strength in the convention will be the sequence of the purity, efficiency and usefulness of his administration, and not of the desire of the active political class to make him a presi-dential candidate. It is the esteem in which, as President, he is held, the confidence felt in his ability and integrity as President, and the intelligent, grateful appreciation of what he has done as President that will make him so strong. His proposed candidacy rests upon no factitions foundations, but upon the natural ones of popular confidence and respect.

AMERICAN INVENTIONS IN INDIA. Something of Interest to all Ameri-

A Calcutta letter says that American inventions and discoveries are fast displacing the older ones of English manufacture in the Indian Empire. Thus, a few years ago, the American harvesters and reapers were entirely unknown, where now there are many. The American telephone has been introduced in most of the large cities. Stranger than all, the old-fashioned, huge pills are fast giving place to Dr. Pierce's Pieasant Pellets, or "P. P. P.," which were first introduced in London some years ago by their American proprietors. Every Englishman who enjoys good eating, must have his dinner-pill, and it is not unusual to see distinguished persons draw from their waistcoats a tiny little vial of these Pellets, and take one with their wine. After taking one you feel well, instead of bilious and constipated; your sick headache, dizziness and indigestion are gone. It's done mildly and easily, too. These are tiny, sugar-coated, but thorough in results. One Pellet's laxative, three to four are cathartic. They regulate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels—quickly, but thoroughly. They are guaranteed to give satisfaction.
